FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE JANUARY 18, 2022

With excitement and praise, the Hillsdale Board Of Education recognized members of the staff that achieved 25 years of service. Board of Education President Shane Svorec began the meeting by welcoming the distinguished guests and called attention to the remembrance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as she shared about the greatness that is his service and the greatness of service that the Hillsdale Public School staff members share in their work with children. Recognized for their service to students and attainment of 25 years were: Mrs. Anne Marie Garrett, Mrs. Nancy Smith and Mr. Michael Amuso. The Board of Education congratulates each honoree and wishes them continued success in the Hillsdale Public Schools.
