FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE December 7, 2018

On Monday, December 3, published author, Karen Kaufman Orloff visited Ann Blanche Smith School in Hillsdale. She spoke to students at all grade levels about her career as an author, the story-writing process, and the steps to having a book published. Students were able to hear from Ms. Orloff about her career path and the celebration that is her writing. Included in her conversation were details about being a published author and not only creating a story, but working collaboratively with an illustrator, publisher and many others to help create a fantastic end product that children will cherish. Ms. Orloff has written many children's books, including I Wanna Iguana, and her newest title, Miles of Smiles.
